Software Developer

As an aspiring professional in software development, I am seeking a challenging opportunity in full-stack development. I have gained valuable experience through several self-initiated projects and active participation in rigorous coding competitions, which have provided me with real-world work scenarios to further enhance my skillset.

Experience

Full Stack
Implemented enterprise Pizza web application, success rate of 95%. Implemented using Python, MangoDB, HTML and pyScript.
Interface prompts user to choose desired toppings and pizza and takes them to checkout. Designed the UI in Html and created an algorithm in python , import using pyScript.

Front End
Designed a Web page for a Dream Journal called Slumber
Fabricated using Html, Nodejs and MySQL.
